

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, Aug. 2

2000

Protective Services offers class on home security

Home security training is available from Marshall Protective Services during staff meetings, brown bag lunches, safety meetings, etc. The program can be tailored for 10- to 30-minute presentations. For more information or to schedule a class, call Ron Grimes at 544-8673 or Rod Williams at 544-8674.

Center Director's all-hands meeting Aug. 15. E-mail questions to INTERCOM by Mon.

Shuttle upgrade presentations, 8 a.m.-noon, Aug. 16, Morris Auditorium

Safety Bowl questions

1. Injuries from these household objects send more people to the emergency room than do injuries from any other household object. What are they?

- a. vacuum cleaners
- b. kitchen knives
- c. electric skillets
- d. steam irons

2. Concerning manual lifting, limit the weight lifted to personal physical capabilities, but in no case should an individual manually lift more than how many pounds?

*See answers at bottom of page

Slogan being sought for Marshall Safety Day Oct. 25

Marshall employees and contractors are asked to submit ideas for a slogan for Safety Day, Oct. 25. E-mail ideas by Aug. 31 to: helen.eddleman@msfc.nasa.gov

Answers to Safety Bowl questions:

- 1. b. kitchen knives
- 2. 40 pounds